Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of HERITAGE PARK MANAGEMENT CORPORATION (the Organization), which comprise the statements of assets, liabilities, and member's equity as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the statements of receipts and expenses, statements of changes in member's equity, and statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and member's equity of the Organization as at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its statements of revenues and expenses, changes in member's equity and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards for Small Entities (PFRS for SEs).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (Code of Ethics) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the Philippines, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with PFRS for SEs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Our audit were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information for the year ended December 31, 2023 required by the Bureau of Internal Revenue as disclosed in Note 13 to the financial statements is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements prepared in accordance with PFRS for SEs. Such supplementary information is the responsibility of management. The supplementary information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Approval of the Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Organization for the year ended December 31, 2023 including its comparative figures for the year ended December 31, 2022 were approved and authorized for issue by the Board of Trustees on April 18, 2024.

NOTE 2 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Statement of Compliance

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared in compliance with the Philippine Financial Reporting Standard for Small Entities (PFRS for SEs) issued by the Philippine Financial and Sustainability Reporting Standards Council and adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including SEC provision.

Basis of Preparation and Measurement

The Organization has prepared the financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 on a going concern basis, which assumes continuity of current business activities and the realization of assets and settlements of liabilities in the ordinary course of business.

They are presented in Philippine Peso which is the Organization's functional and presentation currency. All amounts are rounded to the nearest peso.

The financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis, unless stated otherwise.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

NOTE 3 - SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The material accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarized below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Financial Instruments

Initial recognition and measurement

A financial asset or financial liability is recognized when the Organization becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the contract. A financial asset or financial liability is initially measured at transaction price unless the arrangement constitutes, in effect, a financing transaction.

Subsequent measurement

At financial statement date, the Organization measures its financial instruments as follows:

- Short-term debt instruments are measured at undiscounted amount. Cash, payables and funds held in trust accounts are included in this category.

Impairment of Financial Assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Organization assesses whether there is an objective evidence of impairment of any financial assets that are measured at cost or amortized cost. If there is objective evidence of impairments, the Organization shall recognize an impairment loss in profit or loss immediately.

Objective evidence of impairment could include significant financial difficulty of the counterparty; delinquency in interest or principal payments; or bankruptcy of the counterparty.

For certain categories of financial assets that are assessed not to be impaired individually are, in addition, assessed for impairment on a collective basis. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include the Organization's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in number of delayed payments in the portfolio past the average credit period as well as observable changes in economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

Derecognition

Financial asset: The Organization derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual right to the cash flows from the financial asset has expired or when the Organization has transferred to another party substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

Financial Liability: The Organization derecognizes a financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) only when it is extinguished. The Organization recognizes in profit or loss any difference between the carrying amounts of the financial liability extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed.

Other Current Assets

Other current assets include advances to officers and employees and input tax. Other current assets are stated in the statement of financial position at cost less any portion that has already been consumed or that has already expired.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are tangible assets that are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, for rental to others, or for administrative purposes, and are expected to be used during more than one period.

Items of property and equipment are initially measured at cost. Such cost includes purchase price and all incidental costs necessary to bring the asset to its location and condition. Subsequent to initial recognition, items of property and equipment are measured in the statement of financial position at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation, which is computed on a straight-line basis, is recognized so as to allocate the cost of assets less their residual values over their estimated useful lives. The office equipment is being depreciated over five (5) years.

If there is an indication that there has been a significant change in useful life or residual value of an asset, the depreciation of that asset is revised prospectively to reflect the new expectations.

When assets are sold, retired or otherwise disposed of, their costs and related accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any, are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in profit or loss for the period.

Impairment of Non- Financial Assets

At each reporting date, non-financial assets are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If there is an indication of possible impairment, the recoverable amount of any affected asset (or group of related assets) is estimated and compared with its carrying amount. If estimated recoverable amount is lower, the carrying amount is reduced to its estimated recoverable amount, and an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit and loss.

If an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increase to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but not to exceed the amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit and loss.

Member's Equity

Member's equity comprise of member's contribution and fund balance. Fund balance pertains to the accumulated excess of revenue over expenses of the organization.

Receipts

Appropriated operating funds

The Organization receives funds equivalent to actual expenses from the Heritage Park Perpetual Care Fund Trust to defray its operating expenses.

Interest income

Interest income represent income on bank deposits. Interest income is recognized in profit and loss as it accrues, using the effective interest method.

Expenses

Expenses are decreases in economic benefits in the form of decreases in assets or incurrence of liabilities that result in decreases in equity, other than those relating to distributions to equity participants. Expenses are generally recognized when the services are received or when the expenses are incurred.

Income Tax

Income tax expense included only current tax expense which is based on taxable profit for the year.

The Organization recognized a current tax liability for tax payable on taxable profit for the current and past periods. If the amount paid for the current and past periods exceeds the amount payable for those periods, the Organization shall recognize the excess as a current tax asset.

Related Parties

Related party relationship exists when one party has the ability to control, directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, the other party or exercises significant influence over the other party in making financial and operating decisions. Such relationships also exist between and/or among entities which are under common control with the reporting enterprise, or between, and/or among the reporting enterprise and its key management personnel, directors, or its major shareholders. In considering each possible related party relationship, attention is directed to the substance of the relationship, and not merely the legal form.

Provisions and contingencies

Provisions are recognized only when the Organization has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that the Organization will be required to transfer economic benefits in settlement; and the amount of provision can be estimated reliably.

Contingent assets and liabilities are not recognized in the financial statements.

Changes in accounting policies, change in accounting estimates and correction of prior years errors

The Organization applies changes in accounting policy if the change is required by the accounting standards or in order to provide reliable and more relevant information about the effects of transactions, other events or conditions on the Organization's financial statements. Changes in accounting policy brought about by new accounting standards are accounted for in accordance with the specific transitional provision of the standards. All other changes in accounting policy are treated as an adjustment of the opening retained earnings of the current period.

Changes in accounting estimates are recognized prospectively by reflecting it in the profit and loss in the period of the change if the changes affect that period only or the period of the change and future periods if the change affects both.

Prior period errors are omissions from, and misstatements in, the Organization's financial statements for one or more prior periods arising from a failure to use, or misuse of, reliable information that was available when financial statements for those periods were authorized for issue and could reasonably be expected to have been obtained and taken into account in the preparation and presentation of those financial statements.

The Organization corrects a material prior period error by adjusting the opening retained earnings of the current period without restating the comparative figures.

Subsequent events that provide additional information about conditions existing after period end (non-adjusting events) are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.
